“Scared of having a tacky DJ?”

A wedding is a very special moment in a couple's life. From the decor, the atmosphere, the food and the love. However most couples don't realise that a big factor of the day's celebrations is covered by the entertainment. Picking the right supplier can be a stressful process and can make or break your wedding night.

This is why we deliver only the highest in tailored elegant modern wedding DJ entertainment.

We are fully trained, fully insured and come stylishly smart dressed. If you was to book with ourselves, we would work with you over the on coming months to plan the perfect layout for your music choices. From your own online playlist planner to a personal one to one consultation.

Your DJ will play the correct style of music to suit the atmosphere and time of the night, along with your personal selections.

“We know how to party!”
